

I'm running

(Words : Fede Conte – Lyrics : Fede Conte)

Life is not so bad, as you can see
One dream comes as another one goes
That is why I believe that everything happens for a reason

And while you realise what I've been telling you
Don't only put your heart but add your actions too
To succeed, to love, to dream...

I'm running on a self-made-trail, no way you will stop me
I'm running until there is no more exit, do not hate me

Life is not so bad as you can see...when we are two
We who are here to pluck the fruits of what we've created
Every day
Even without Love
With tenderness, in a good mood

But when you pose yourselves too many questions instead of being here
While you could just be living like me, just like I do

I'm running on a self-made-trail, no way you will stop me
I'm running until there is no more exit, do not hate me

I can see your glance is changing
Why don't you follow me throughout my madness?
Come with me
I can feel your shivers
But why are you afraid of this life
(Come with me

Why do you keep on asking the time 'o clock into infinity
Why on Earth is it that you can just not live like me, like me

I'm running on a self-made-trail, no way you will stop me
I'm running until there is no more exit, do not hate me
