

I surrender my Soul

(Words : Fede Conte – Lyrics : Fede Conte)

A flower reborn every morning
Opening towards Infinity by the grace your love
I want to hear your sweet stories
That gently whisper me to sleep
I want to sail upon open seas
That shall carry me to you

I surrender my soul
If you will not stand by me

A noise has startled the very caress
That has been keeping me alive
My ghastly sensations
Can only carry me towards your thoughts
I want to get rid of all memories
Swimming through raging Seas
Just to be with you

I surrender my soul
If you will not stand by me

Nostalgia is strangling me
May all those memories
Get rid of me

I surrender my soul
If you will not stand by me
